Children continue to refine and extend their earlier phonics knowledge with each year providing:
- 36 spelling lessons (1 per week) - 36 grammar or punctuation lessons (1 per week)

The learning doesn't stop after the first year of phonics, with an additional six years of spelling, punctuation and grammar taking your children all the way through their primary school years.

Teaching is systematic and progressive (and fun) meaning that previously learnt knowledge is constantly revised as new concepts are introduced and built upon.

Why choose Jolly Phonics and Grammar?

Progressive 7-year literacy scheme

The Jolly Phonics and Grammar programme extends across 7 years of primary school, with the first year of Jolly Phonics followed by an additional 6 years of spelling, punctuation and grammar teaching.

The core teaching materials - interactive classroom software, Jolly Phonics for the Whiteboard; the black-and-white photocopiable Jolly Phonics Handbook; and the full-colour Jolly Phonics Teacher's and Pupil Books - allow teachers to deliver high-quality literacy education, with different options for delivery of content and for different budgets. They can be used alongside each other, or independently, to provide your children with the highest quality education.

After the initial year of Jolly Phonics, these core teaching resources continue with the Grammar Handbooks and Grammar

Teacher's and Pupil Books. These resources introduce new spelling, punctuation and grammar concepts, constantly revising and consolidating previously learnt knowledge as new ideas are introduced.

Over 30 years of proven results

The Jolly Phonics programme was first developed in 1987, using the synthetic phonics method of teaching the letter sounds in a way that is fun and multi-sensory, enabling children to become fluent readers. Since then, we have been part of the remarkable transition that has made this kind of teaching mainstream around the world!

We have a wide selection of Case Studies and Research that consistently point to the high achievement in schools using the programme, as well as a selection of Partner Schools who you can contact to discuss the success they are enjoying right now! This can all be found at www.jollylearning.co.uk/evidence.

Fun and multi-sensory

Jolly Phonics is fun and multi-sensory, ensuring teachers enjoy teaching and children enjoy learning! There are songs, stories and actions for each of the 42 letter sounds to help all children begin their reading and writing journeys.

Written by teachers, for teachers

Sue Lloyd and Sara Wernham, the Jolly Phonics co-authors, were primary school teachers at Woods Loke Primary School in Lowestoft, England, when Jolly Phonics was first developed.

Sue and Sara continue to write new resources for the programme, whilst the Jolly team work closely with schools worldwide to develop high-quality resources that both teachers and children enjoy using in their classroom.
